PRESS RELEASE

Date: March 31, 2008

Seven students of Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry placed in the 2008 regional competition of National History Day held on Saturday, March 28. This year marks the 27th consecutive year that the middle school has participated in the event. This year's winners include Morgan Covensky and Rebecca Abitz who placed first for their performance on the Rosenberg case during the Cold War. Samantha Coulombe placed second for her performance on Susan B. Anthony and Taylor Vann, Garrett Richardello, Mike Dolan, and Jordan Sabin placed third for their documentary on the Bataan Death March during World War II. The students, who are coached by teacher Al Scopino, will now prepare for state competition in May.
