PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 12, 2008

More than 1,000 Connecticut students have participated in the Spring 2008 Stock Market Game, Newspaper in Education program, sponsored by the Hartford Courant. Student teams start with an imaginary $100,000 to buy or sell stocks. Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School Grade 6 students, Kevin Icart, Jessie Fritche, and Hunter Byram, coached by their Challenge and Enrichment Teacher, Carla Kennedy, placed third in the middle school division. The program ran for ten weeks and ended on May 2, 2008. The winners will receive a certificate from the Hartford Courant.
