PRESS RELEASE

Date: January 29, 2009

Mrs. Goldsnider, a fourth grade teacher at the G. H. Robertson School (GHR), has been awarded the Picturing America Grant. This is a free education resource of the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) distributed in cooperation with the American Library Association. Winning this grant was made possible by Mrs. Wendy D'Agostino's love of the arts and dedicated help. Mrs. D'Agostino is a GHR parent who assisted in the grant writing process.

Picturing America Grant awarded materials include a teacher's resource book and forty images mounted on laminated posters for display and classroom use. These materials will enhance the cultural arts program that is already being taught in Mrs. Goldsnider's class.

For further information please call the G. H. Robertson School at (860) 742-7341.
