PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 22, 2009

Ten students from the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School have had their poetry selected to be published in the anthology, A Celebration of Young Poets. The students of grade 6 teacher Adrienne Manzone whose work will be represented include the following: Jordan Butler, Carleigh Davis, Andrew Dimock, Erica Hopkins, Elisabeth Jean, Nickolas Johansen, Samantha LeBlond, Thomas Pawloski, Haley Pollinger, and Tanner Wilson. Less than fifty percent of the poems submitted to the anthology are selected to be published. In judging thousands of poems each year, judges have found that the single most important factor in creating a quality poem is the quality of the instruction. Creative Communications has found that schools with excellent language arts programs have a much higher percentage of their students' poetry accepted. The list of students that have been accepted to be published this year represents talent, hard work, and dedication from both the teacher and the students.

If you have any questions, please call the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School at 742-7334.
